At first, the friends think that the noises are just animals. But as the night goes on, they become increasingly scared. They start to see strange shadows moving in the trees, and they hear growling noises that sound like they are coming from a large animal.

The friends decide to stay together for safety. They huddle around a campfire and try to keep each other calm. But as the night wears on, they start to get picked off one by one.

Matt is the first to go. He is attacked by a creature that looks like a wolf, but with glowing red eyes. Amy is next, and she is killed by a creature that looks like a snake, but with sharp teeth.

Josh and Jessica are the last ones left. They manage to escape the camp and run into the forest. But they are not safe yet. The creature is still after them, and it is closing in.

Josh and Jessica know that they have to find a way to escape. But how? The creature is too fast and too strong. They are starting to lose hope.

Just when all hope seems lost, Josh and Jessica find a way out. They come across an abandoned cabin in the woods. They break in and hide inside.

The creature searches for them, but it can't find them. Josh and Jessica are safe at last.

They stay in the cabin for the rest of the night. In the morning, they cautiously make their way back to the camp. They are relieved to find that the creature is gone.

Josh and Jessica are the only ones who survived the night. They are traumatized by their experience, but they are also grateful to be alive.

Escape From Camp Run For Your Life is a thrilling and suspenseful story that will keep you on the edge of your seat from beginning to end. It is a must-read for fans of horror and suspense.
