

Giannis Antetokounmpo: From the Streets of Greece to the NBA's MVP Throne

The Early Years

Giannis Antetokounmpo was born in Athens, Greece, on December 6, 1994. His parents were Nigerian immigrants who had come to Greece in search of a better life. Giannis was one of five children, and the family lived in poverty. As a child, Giannis often had to sell trinkets on the streets of Athens to help his family make ends meet.

Despite his difficult circumstances, Giannis had a passion for basketball. He would often play with his brothers in the streets, and he quickly developed a reputation as a talented player. In 2009, Giannis was spotted by Spiros Velliniatis, a youth basketball coach who was impressed by his athleticism and potential. Velliniatis invited Giannis to join his team, Filathlitikos, and helped him to develop his skills.
