In his letters to Jackie, John wrote about the things he saw and experienced in Viet Nam. He wrote about the fear and the violence, the boredom and the loneliness. He also wrote about the camaraderie he shared with his fellow soldiers, and the hope that he had for the future.

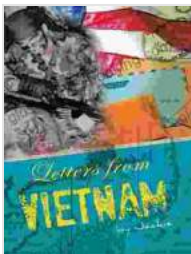

A Journey of Redemption

Jackie's journey to Viet Nam was a journey of redemption. Through her father's letters, she came to understand the sacrifices he made for his country. She also came to understand the pain and suffering that he endured. And she came to forgive him for leaving her alone.
