

The Baker Son: My Life in Business

The Baker Son is a memoir by Greg Baker, the son of a baker. The book tells the story of Greg's life, from his childhood growing up in the family bakery to his eventual takeover of the business.

The book is full of insights into the world of business and family, and it is a must-read for anyone interested in either topic. Greg Baker is a gifted storyteller, and he brings the world of his family bakery to life with vivid detail. He writes about the long hours, the hard work, and the sacrifices that his parents made to keep the business afloat. He also writes about the love and support that his family gave him, and the lessons he learned from them about business and life.
