In a quiet neighborhood, surrounded by white picket fences and manicured lawns, a seemingly perfect marriage is about to unravel. Behind closed doors, secrets and lies fester, threatening to destroy everything.

Sarah and David have been married for five years. They are the envy of their friends and family, with a beautiful home, successful careers, and a loving young daughter. But beneath the surface, their marriage is crumbling.

Sarah is haunted by nightmares. She suspects David is cheating on her, but he denies everything. David, meanwhile, is consumed by guilt and shame. He has a secret that he can't bring himself to tell Sarah, a secret that could shatter their perfect world.

As the tension between them mounts, Sarah becomes increasingly desperate. She hires a private investigator to follow David, and what she discovers is more shocking than she could have ever imagined.

Caught in a web of lies and betrayal, Sarah must confront the truth about her husband and the marriage she thought was perfect. But is she prepared for the devastating consequences?
