

U2 At The Opera Fan History: The Ultimate Collector's Guide

U2 At The Opera Fan History is the definitive guide to the band's iconic performances at the Sydney Opera House. This lavishly illustrated book features rare and unseen photos, exclusive interviews, and behind-the-scenes stories from the band, crew, and fans.

Over two nights in November 1989, U2 transformed the Sydney Opera House into a rock 'n' roll cathedral. The band's performances were captured on film and released as the Grammy Award-winning Rattle and Hum, which became one of the most iconic concert films of all time.
